THE LATE GRATE SQUELCH. [Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

I have made my mind to open up a corrys | yours. pondents with you for all whom it may consern. I have selected you because I once knowed one of you, which it was not the old man, who was before my time, thow I once heerd him make a good speach for a whig speach; but it was a young one which I saw down South during the war. And I'll tell you why I'm a writing-its all because of the times. For you know the times is very unsertain now, and it is hard to keep up with em, and so we out here in the country (I don't mean Congresses country, which some call the country at large, but the country I live in, which is the pine forist of Fairfax county, near Brimstone tavern)-well, we like to git your paper to see know what we think of it, and how we feel about it and that's why I'm writing.

And this reminds me that your paper comes very irregular lately. I was askin some frens about it, and Phil Oshum sed he reconed the males was deranged, but old Dr. Dabbs sed it Sallie Hunter, an infant, and Minnie Hunter, an gas only the post-master. But Jack Anapes, who is a particular friend of mine, about whom more anon after awhile, said Bill Massy would'nt let your paper come regular because ! he's a Rad. But that can't be so, because I P. Herbert at the time of her death. never see his name to no committys, nor memoryals, nor Ferrit meetings, nor nothin of the kind, and it ain't no use to try and fool me on him. Rads that ain't in on all them sorts of things ain't no rads at all-cording to my xpe-

Of course you ought to know who I am before makin a barging with me, and I'll tell you. I don't perfess to be much of a scolar and you wont find no great book-larnin in my letters. Tru I was a Comisery in the C. S. A. (which I indignuntly scorn the impetation of being a Quatermaster) - and I still hold on to my comdidn't take much to make a Confedrate Comisery, for it was mighty little we had to comisery with, and besides I have fell in with some Feds with pison-oak leaves on their sholders, that didn't know so dam much either. But I ain't no sardeen anyhow: I've got good plowhorse sense about some things, and some of the cutest nabors in the world, and with their assistents I'll keep you well posted on the sentiments of the peeple. - (I'm sorry I had to use tees,) Davises proclymashun agin grinding seed-corn, which is a lessin I hope theyl improve. I once heerd of a man out West who jumpt on shore, tuk a drink, stold a watch, got arrested, tryed. convikted and flogd for it, put on his shert, tak another drink and jumpt on bord agin, while the boat he was travlin on was laying at the warf lettin off steem; and it seems to me

our peeple have done purty neer as many and similar things in the last two weeks, while Congress has been blowin off steem. In fact, I havent xperients a two weaks so prolyphic of changes since the death of old Stonewall-God bless his gloryous memory! Just think of it! Two weaks ago about every other man in Fairfax county (and I spose she's a fair spesimen of the balants) was a candate for the Legislatur-and now whar is the Legislatur? Eko ansers, "Busted all to flinters!" I tell you its a fact. Thar was about twenty candates out, and hatching at the rate of three or four per dyem, Firs, Senterville; had jest made a lump buisness of it, because she sufferd so much in the war, and so everyboddy thar was runnin, xcept a won-eyed man, who couldn't see it in that lite. Then thar was old Majer Willyums, and Col. Bawl, (so-called,) and Jim Sankstur, and I did hear that the old "Lone Star," alyass Daniel Lewis, the present incubus, Dr. Dabbs told me that's the word-I thought it was incumbant, but he says not, and as some of the Yanks stold my dieshonary durin the war I cant be sertain)—well I heerd he was in agio on the strenth of his last speach-and old thinkin of it myself. Well, while we was all minuvering to see who could git the nomynation, for we begin to see we must have a County Convenshun, here comes Mr. S. S. Shellabarker's Bill (the Dr. ses I ought to say his will) like a rifial shell into the sububs of a Quartermaster train, and such a cuttin loose of mules, and takin to the saved a good deel of ridin about the country, and a good deel of neglect of buisness, and a

Ederds, and a colord gentleman name Mr. Bill

Norris was also runnin, and my frend Jack

Anapes had announts himself, and I was even

Well, thow this cut most of the candates off, still thar was enuff to quarrel about yet. Some got mad becaus they was disfranchysed, and sed we oughtnt to vote for engbody who was in laver of a Convenshun-others sed visa versa, and Jack Anapes, who was a constible wonce, oughot to do nothin, and that a man who would to keep a larger assortment of Vote fur a Convenshun was a dam submisshunduous branch of the servis, the Comisery's he sed per se ment for himself, which I don't pretend to no much about. Well, this made me rather shy of Jack's opinyuns, so I sed to him we had been in two much burray wonce before, and wede better keep cool, and watch the cat jump this time. An so it proved, for the question of Convenshun was soon settled by the Supplementery Bill and General Scofeel's muskits. But that TOBACCO-Baker's "F in. I met him won mornin, lookin very down, mh 1-and he sed he had layd awake all nite, thinkin AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER. that the peeple couldn't take the oth of heartfelt attachment, &c., I advised him no to distress hisself, for the thing wasent over, and I soon found I was rite, for I see they've changed the oth. But I don't regard the finalty as yet come. It may be, and it mout not be. If it is, then we've got it, and if it aint, its no more use to try and guess what it will be then it would be to spekelate what kind of wether weel have in April or who will be the next Mare of Atexandry. An, as for me, in the langwige of Patric Henry, slitely altared to suit the sercemstantses, give me a plow-handle, or give me a grubbin ho, and I'll do a heep more good among the broom sage and sassafrax bushes, than I could in the Legislatur, or even in Congriss.

I have writ this letter for the benefit of my owo peeple. If you would like to hear from me on some other top:ks, I will rite agin, and giv you some reflecshus on some of your Alexaniry selebrities, as seen from a forin pint of view, which, I think, you'll find interestin. I know a pull or two on some of em, which has never been in print, and which it shows them up in a manner that would be edyfyin to all. At present I must conclude. I remane McKAY RONEY. A. C. S., C.
